

The Last Days of the Raj

Welcome to The Last Days of the Raj restaurant.

The British Raj took much away from its sojourn into India, one of the most significant of which was the food. The discovery of Indian spices changed the British palate forever, creating a legacy which has continued long after the days of the Raj were gone.

Our menu reflects the vast range of cuisine from the subcontinent with influences from Bengal, Parsi, Goan, Gujarat as well as from the British Raj. We are confident that our menu will impress your taste buds but our chefs are more than happy to cater to any particular needs you may have.

The restaurant and menu embodies the culture of the Indian Subcontinent and celebrates its history, culture and traditions. We aim to provide you with exemplary service and great food in a comfortable environment fit for a Maharajah.

Since opening the original restaurant in 1995, the Last Days of the Raj had become synonymous with fine food and attention to detail. The restaurant had become one of the most successful Indian restaurants in the North East winning national awards.

We opened here in January 2015 and have enjoyed great success thanks to our customers. We have continued the tradition of being nominated for the top awards by being a finalist for "Newcomer Of The Year" category at The British Curry Awards 2015 and 2016 and we hope to go on and excel further in the future.

Please enjoy your visit and enjoy our celebration of the British Raj.

If you cannot find your favourite dish on the menu then please ask your waiter if the chef can prepare it for you.

We do work in an environment where various allergens are used. If you do have any special requirements or are allergic to any ingredients then please ask to speak to one of the managers and they will advise you further.
